Headteacher: Mr D J Ramsden

TEACHER OF SOCIAL SCIENCES (PSYCHOLOGY)

Required September 2025
Main Scale/UPR

We are looking to appoint an inspirational and enthusiastic teacher to join our newly created Social Sciences Faculty. Psychology has a strong reputation as one of highest performing departments at A Level with student numbers are consistently high. We have recently expanded our curriculum to include A Level Sociology from September 2022. Both subjects follow the AQA specification and having taught this specification would be advantageous but not essential. We are interested in hearing from people who are also able to teach the other subjects based in the Faculty (Level 2 Cambridge Child Development and Pearson BTEC Level 3 Health and Social Care) as well as those listed above. The ability to teach Sociology and/or Health and Social Care would be advantageous but not essential.

The ideal candidate will:

- be passionate about their subjects and have the desire to share that passion with students;
- be an innovative and inspiring classroom teacher;
- be able to work collaboratively in a dynamic team;
- be reflective and eager to develop their teaching skills.
